RECKLESS DRIVING,

A complaint was made to the poprec whis morning of the fast and reckless driving of a man named Lowder from Harrisvill, and a complaint may be issued for fast driving. While driving northward on Washington avenue, Lowder it is claimed, drove his spring wagon against a single buggy being driven by Mrs. Allred of Stateville; the buggy was overturned and the lady thrown but with considerable force, badly spraining her wrists and otherwise severely bruising her. Lowder did not stop to see whether the woman was hurt or not, but drove on as though nothing had happened.

EYE.

The Southern Pacific has been made defendant in a damage suit filed in the second district court by Joseph Cameron to recover $5,000 alleged to be due for bodily injuries. The complaint sets forth that Cameron was employed by the railroad company as machinist at Montello. Nevada, that he was set to work by the foreman of the shops to repair a broken cylinder on an engine which was in full steam; that while he was engaged at the work the cylinder suddenly broke, through permitting the steam to escape, scalding plaintiff's face and body terribly and ruining the right eyesight. The accident it is alleged was caused through the carelessness of the railroad company. It happened Aug. 17, 1907.

FUNERAL OF MRS. CARDON.

FUNERAL OF MRS CARDON.

Mrs. Anna Cardon, wife of John Cardon, who died Sunday evening of paralysis, aged 81 years, one of the pioneers of Ogden City, was laid to rest yesterday afternoon in the Ogden City cemetery. A wealth of beautiful floral tributes covered her grave, sliently bespeaking the love and high esteem in which the deceased was held in the community, in which she had lived for more than half a century.

The Lynn ward meetinghouse, in which the funeral services were held, was crowded with relatives and friends. The ward choir sang several beautiful selections, and Miss Myrtle Leavitt sang, "I Know that My Redeemer Lives." The speakers were President L. W. Shurtliff, Counselor C. F. Middleton, Elder Hans Madsen and Bishop George Smuin, who feelingly spoke of the deceased as a woman of God, whose life had been devoted to helping others, in caring for the sick and the needy.

RACES FOR LABOR DAY.

The Inter-Mountain Fair association The Inter-Mountain Fair association directors held a meting last evening and deedled on a three days' race meet in Ogden to be held commencing Laborday, September 2, every indication is that it will be the best race meet ever held in the city as there are some large prizes to be run for. The sum of $1.625 has been appropriated by the association to be divided among the winners. Already a large number o local horses have been entered and 11 good racers from outside of Weber county. Great interest is being manifest in the event by horsemen.

Lander, Wyo., Aug. 24 .- A fierce riot raged for several hours at Windfield, a small station on the Chicago & Northwestern, east of Lander, yesterday. Two Austrian laborers were killed and a large number wounded. Deputy Sheriff Morrison, who, with three deputies, attempted to quell the riot, was badly wounded and driven off by the rloters, wounded and driven off by the rioters, who stopped fighting among themselves long enough to attack the posse. Morrison has called upon Gov. Brooks to call out company B. Wyoming national guards, stationed here, to assist in quelling the riot.

The telegraph operator at Windfield, where about 75 laborers are employed in three gangs on track work, telegraphed to Sheriff Stough here shortly hefore noon that the Austrians were rioting and to send officers. Sheriff Stough is absent, but his office deputy telegraphed to Deputy Sheriff Morrison at Shoshoni. The latter deputized three men, and jumping on an engine, made a quick run to Windfield, arriving there in half an hour.

a quick run to Windfield, arriving there in half an hour.

The Austrians were still fighting, but they were almost exhausted. They had no guns, but used sticks and stones. When Morrison attempted to preserve order, the combatants turned upon him and his small force, and a fierce battle raged for several minutes, or until Morrison could withdraw. The posse used their guns, and aside from killing one Austrian, wounded a number of others.

Meetings have been held with the intention of getting some coal in from the nearby coal mines, but nothing definite has yet been done. There are a number of obstacles in the way and among them are that a road will have to be built for a considerable distance around a large mountain. It is thought, however, that all difficulties will be overcome and that coal will be hauled from these this fall.
